CONSIDER THE FOLLOWING DILEMMA:

"Michelle has worked in sales at a department store for five years, where she initially was supervised by a supportive manager named Amy. Michelle likes her job, which gives her the flexibility to be in school at the same time, and she also likes her co-workers. However, when Amy leaves the store, a new manager named Will is hired. Will quickly develops a reputation for being difficult and providing harsh feedback. During her performance check-in, Will berates Michelle for an email she sent about her schedule for not following a new process and also questions her priorities. Other co-workers have begun leaving the store due to Will's management style. Michelle wonders if she should stay in her job and, if so, how she should move forward with Will as her boss."

WHICH OF THE 3ES IS MOST REPRESENTED IN THIS DILEMMA? WHY? WHAT MIGHT MICHELLE'S RESPONSIBILITIES OR VALUES BE HERE? WHY?
